

School Readiness Survey: School Processes

School Name: Planning Team Members:	Not using	Using sometimes	Using most of the time
School Processes
Use a multitiered intervention system
Use a school-wide data management system for universal screening and progress monitoring data
Use data to make team decisions
Support collaboration among general ed, special ed, and other professionals (e.g., ESL teacher)
Focus on instructional decisions instead of referrals
Create grade-level teams
Collaborate with parents
Other:
Other:
Recommended Resources:
Recommended Professional Development Activities:

School Readiness Survey: Instruction and Intervention

		% not using	% using sometimes	% using most of the time
Classroom Instruction
Use of high-quality reading program that addresses the five core components (Name of program by grade level): _____ _____	K
	1st
	2nd
	3rd
	4th
Use of research-based instructional practices: Differentiated Instruction Grouping Other: _____
Use of effective classroom management techniques
Intervention		Not using	Using sometimes	Using most of the time
Use of multiple levels of intervention
Low student to teacher ratio
Use of high-quality reading program aligns with the core program (Name of program by grade level): _____ _____
Use of research-based instructional practices: Differentiated Instruction Grouping Other: _____
Recommended Resources:
Recommended Professional Development Activities:

School Readiness Survey: Assessment

		% not using	% using sometimes	% using most of the time
Assessment
Use of a screening measure for reading (Name of measure by grade level): _____ _____	K
	1st
	2nd
	3rd
	4th
Use of frequent and systematic progress monitoring:(Name of measure by grade level): _____ _____
	K
	1st
	2nd
	3rd
Use of data to make instruction-related decisions
Use of classroom data management system
Recommended Resources:
Recommended Professional Development Activities:				