Instructional Accommodations:
Making the Learning Environment Accessible to Students with Visual Disabilities

Related Modules

- Accommodations: Instructional and Testing Supports for Students with Disabilities
- Differentiated Instruction: Maximizing the Learning of All Students
- Universal Design for Learning: Designing Learning Experiences That Engage and Challenge All Students

Interviews

- Cultural Considerations for Developing a Behavior Management Plan

Instructional Accommodations:

Making the Learning Environment Accessible to Students with Visual Disabilities

Case Studies

- Effective Room Arrangement: Elementary
- Effective Room Arrangement: Middle and High School

Select Information Briefs

- Braille: Research
- Classroom Adaptations for Students with Low Vision
- Large Print: Research

Activities

- Visual Impairment: Simulation

For the latest updates of the IRIS Center's resources, please visit iris.peabody.vanderbilt.edu

032224