Secondary Reading Instruction (Part 1):
Teaching Vocabulary and Comprehension in the Content Areas

Related Modules
- CSR: A Reading Comprehension Strategy
- PALS: A Reading Strategy for High School
- Secondary Reading Instruction (Part 2): Deepening Middle School Content-Area Learning with Vocabulary and Comprehension Strategies

Video Vignettes
- Actively Reading Textbooks
- Learning Difficult Vocabulary
- Writing Higher Order Questions

Case Studies
- Fostering Student Accountability for Classroom Work

Secondary Reading Instruction (Part 1):
Teaching Vocabulary and Comprehension in the Content Areas

Interviews
- Selecting An Evidence-Based Practice or Program (Panel of Experts)

Select Information Briefs
- Adolescent Literacy: What’s Technology Got to Do With It?
- Collaborative Strategic Reading (CSR): Improving Secondary Students’ Reading Comprehension Skills
- Improving Word Identification Skills Using Strategic Instruction Model (SIM) Strategies

For the latest updates of the IRIS Center’s resources, please visit iris.peabody.vanderbilt.edu